STANDING ORDER OF THE COURT
(Effective 7/1/2011)
BRENDA DESHIELDS
CLERK & RECORDER
BENTON COUNTY, AR

All parties to any and all litigation pending before this Court shall be bound by the terms and provisions of this Standing Order effective immediately on the time and date of the filing of a complaint with the clerk of the appropriate court or on the time and date of actual notice of the complaint or petition having been filed.

The purpose of this Order is to mandate the preservation of the status quo with either party having the right to a prompt hearing to have the Standing Order vacated or modified.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Neither party shall injure, threaten or harass the other, or encourage or solicit other persons to so act.
2. If property rights are at issue neither party shall sell, agree to sell, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose or destroy any of the property to which the parties own an interest, except in the ordinary course of business.
3. If the rights or custody of children are at issue, neither party shall remove, or consent to the removal of any child of the parties from the State of Arkansas without prior permission of this Court.

STANDING ORDER FOR INCOME WITHHOLDING

Pursuant to Section 1(b)(3) of Act 1095 of 1991 of the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas, effective July 1, 1991, all support orders issued by this court shall include a provision for immediate implementation of income withholding from the wages of the non-custodial parent, absent a specific finding of good cause not to require immediate withholding.

Further, all orders or decrees which contain a provision for the implementation of income withholding shall be accompanied at the time of filing with the Clerk of the court a completed current information sheet in the form as marked "Exhibit A" attached, and funds equal to cost of service of lawful notice to the employer of the non-custodial parent by certified mail, per Ark. Code §9-14-222(c). The party presenting the decree or order for filing, being either the custodial or non-custodial parent, shall be responsible for payment of the cost of this notice.

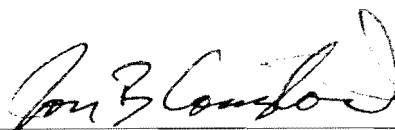

NOTICE

The willful violation of this Order may result in punishment by fine or imprisonment, or both.

SO ORDERED this 7th day of July, 2011.
